 - 4.10.2. The incumbent ceases to meet the requirements of their respective position;
 - 4.10.3. The incumbent is impeached by the Society; or
 - 4.10.4. No candidate is elected to the office at the General Election or Runoff Election.
- 4.11. A vacant seat on the Executive Council shall be filled by the process outlined in Article 9.4.

Article 5: Resolutions

- 5.1. A resolution, proposal, or other action outlined in this Constitution requiring Quorum, hereafter referred to as “action”, may only be approved by one of the following three groups, in order of descending precedence;
 - 5.1.1. Where the action affects the purpose, operation, functionality, inclusivity, or any other aspect of the Society;
 - 5.1.2. Where the percentages and fractions used in Article 5 of the Constitution are rounded down to the nearest whole member; and

- 5.1.3. Where the resolution or proposal does not contradict the CMAS Constitution or the Handbook.
- 5.2. Special Quorum:
 - 5.2.1. A Special Quorum may approve any action that does not contradict Article 5.1.3.
 - 5.2.2. A Special Quorum may be formed at any CMAS General or Special Meeting where a minimum of 15% of CMAS members are present and are willing to partake in a Special Quorum.
 - 5.2.3. The Special Quorum may only approve an action if two thirds of Quorum votes in favour of approval.
 - 5.2.4. A Special Quorum is the only body that may:
 - 5.2.4.a. Approve amendments to the Constitution;
 - 5.2.4.b. Overturn decisions made by an Executive Quorum; and
 - 5.2.4.c. Impeach any Councillor on just grounds.
 - 5.2.5. The members of the Society must be notified a minimum of 5 business days in advance of hosting a Special Quorum.
- 5.3. Executive Quorum:
 - 5.3.1. An Executive Quorum may approve any action that does not contradict Article 5.1, or requires the approval of a Special Quorum as outlined in Article 5.2.4;
 - 5.3.2. An Executive Quorum may be formed at any Meeting where at least 50% of the current Councillors are present, including at least two members of the Presidential Board;
 - 5.3.3. The Executive Quorum may only approve an action if two thirds of Quorum votes in favour of approval;
 - 5.3.4. An Executive Quorum may approve amendments to the Handbook; and
 - 5.3.5. Except in the case of unanimous approval by the present members of the Board of Directors and the Delegation of Representatives, all resolutions passed must carry the vote of at least one member of the Presidential Board.
- 5.4. General Quorum:
 - 5.4.1. A General Quorum may approve any action that does not contradict Article 5.1.2, or requires the approval of a Special or Executive Quorum outlined respectively in Articles 5.2 and 5.3;

- 5.4.2. A General Quorum may be formed at any Public or General Meeting where at least 10% of CMAS members are present and are willing to partake in a General Quorum;
 - 5.4.3. When specifically for the purpose of calling a Special Meeting, a General Quorum may take the form of a letter signed by at least 10% of CMAS members delivered to the Executive Council calling for the Special Meeting; and
 - 5.4.4. The General Quorum may only approve an action if 50% of Quorum votes in favour of approval.
- 5.5. Voting:
- 5.5.1. Members of the Society in good standing are entitled to voting rights, which may be exercised as part of a Quorum or during a CMAS Election;
 - 5.5.2. Members of the Society in good standing are entitled to vote in Quorum by proxy, provided the proxy is not a member of the Society; and
 - 5.5.3. Quorum votes shall not be entitled to secret ballots.
- 5.6. Motions:
- 5.6.1. Motions shall:
 - 5.6.1.a. Be put forward by a member of the Society at any Meeting;
 - 5.6.1.b. Be seconded by another member of the Society;
 - 5.6.1.c. Consist of statements regarding the goal or spirit of the motion, a “Whereas” statement, and a “Be it resolved that” statement, in that order;
 - 5.6.1.d. Be voted upon by the members present or by proxy;
 - 5.6.1.e. Require no minimum attendance;
 - 5.6.1.f. Require a simple majority to pass; and
 - 5.6.1.g. Have the results of the vote certified by the chair of the Meeting and recorded in the meeting minutes.

Article 6: Constitutional Amendments

- 6.1. Amendments to the Constitution of the Society must be ratified at a General or Special meeting.
- 6.2. The effective date of amendments to the Constitution shall be accurately reflected on each published version of the document.

- 6.3. Major changes shall be noted in the Revision History, Appendix A, where:
 - 6.3.1. Major changes refer to changes other than those pertaining to language, unless those changes significantly affect the meaning of the article being amended;
 - 6.3.2. The major changes shall be described in full, including references to all articles amended.
- 6.4. Physical copies of all previous versions of the Constitution shall be kept in the CMAS Office.
 - 6.4.1. Any previous versions of the Constitution must be made available to members upon request.

Article 7: Meetings

- 7.1. Public Meetings shall be:
 - 7.1.1. Open to members and the general public;
 - 7.1.2. Held once per week during the Fall and Winter terms of the academic year, excluding the exam period and the respective study weeks of each term;
 - 7.1.3. Required to be attended by all Councillors except those with express permission of a member of the Presidential Board;
 - 7.1.4. Advertised publicly; and
 - 7.1.5. Chaired by a Councillor.
- 7.2. Executive Meetings shall be:
 - 7.2.1. Open to only to the Executive Council;
 - 7.2.2. Called by any executive member after approval by the President or the Vice President Internal; and
 - 7.2.3. Chaired by the President or Vice President Internal.
- 7.3. General Meetings shall be:
 - 7.3.1. Held twice per academic year, once each in the Fall and Winter terms;
 - 7.3.2. Scheduled to occur in the third month of their respective term;
 - 7.3.3. Chaired by a member of the Society who does not currently sit on the Executive Council;
 - 7.3.4. Known respectively as:
 - 7.3.4.a. The Fall Semester General Meeting; and

- 7.3.4.b. The Annual General Meeting.
- 7.4. Special Meetings shall be:
 - 7.4.1. Chaired by a member of the Society who does not sit on the Executive Council; and
 - 7.4.2. Called by General or Executive Quorum, upon which the President or Vice President must:
 - 7.4.2.a. Determine the date, time, and location of the meeting, that being no more than 10 business days from the passing of the Quorum; and
 - 7.4.2.b. Announce the meeting to the membership no less than five business days in advance of the determined date.
- 7.5. Notwithstanding the right of the membership to attend meetings, the Executive Council may deliberate in private before voting on any resolutions or proposals.
- 7.6. Meeting Minutes shall:
 - 7.6.1. Be made publicly available on the CMAS website no more than two business days after the end of any Public, General, or Special Meeting;
 - 7.6.2. Be recorded by the Secretary of the meeting, where the Secretary shall be a member of the Society appointed by the chair prior to the commencement of the meeting; and
 - 7.6.3. Consist of the following information:
 - 7.6.3.a. Attendance of all Councillors, faculty members, Society members, and members of the public;
 - 7.6.3.b. The speaking order of presentations made; and
 - 7.6.3.c. Notes on the content discussed during the meeting to sufficient detail that a member of the Society who did not attend the meeting may be as fully informed on the activities of the Society as a member who was in attendance.

Article 8: Rules and Regulations Handbook

- 8.1. The Rules and Regulations Handbook, hereafter referred to as the “Handbook”, shall be a collection of the rules and regulations that govern the Society and bind its Councillors, Volunteers, Advisors, and any other individuals working internally with the Society.

- 8.2. The Handbook shall be maintained by the Vice President Internal.
- 8.3. The Handbook is a separate document from the Constitution, requiring only an Executive Quorum to amend it. However, violations of the Handbook also constitute violations of the Constitution itself.
- 8.4. If amendments to the Handbook are ratified by an Executive Quorum, the digital and physical versions of the Handbook shall be updated within five business days.
- 8.5. The outcome of any vote to change, add, or remove material from the Handbook, regardless of outcome, must be recorded and kept for a minimum period of five years in the appendix of the Handbook.
- 8.6. The Handbook shall not contradict any aspect of the Constitution.

Article 9: Elections

- 9.1. The Society shall hold one General Election each year, for the purpose of electing individuals to the Executive Council of the Society.
- 9.2. The position of Electoral Officer shall be an individual:
 - 9.2.1. Appointed unanimously by the Executive Council and announced between 1 January and 28 February;
 - 9.2.2. Who does not currently hold, and has never held, the office of Councillor of the Society;
 - 9.2.3. Not pursuing an office during the election period they preside over;
 - 9.2.4. With no relation to any councillor or candidate that may reasonably constitute a conflict of interest; and
 - 9.2.5. Responsible for the following duties:
 - 9.2.5.a. Notifying the Carleton undergraduate student community of the councillor offices up for election;
 - 9.2.5.b. Establishing and publishing the dates for all events and stages happening throughout the election period, ensuring the timeline is contained within the month of March;
 - 9.2.5.c. Answering questions and clarifying any disputes of interpretation of the article in conjunction with the sitting Vice President Internal;

- 9.2.5.d. Assessing and confirming the eligibility of candidates following the nomination stage of the election;
 - 9.2.5.e. When necessary, coordinating and facilitating runoff elections; and
 - 9.2.5.f. Run the elections in accordance with the rest of Article 9.
- 9.3. A General Election shall be comprised of the following three stages:
- 9.3.1.a. Nomination, where:
 - 9.3.1.a.i. The nomination stage takes place over the course of at least seven days;
 - 9.3.1.a.ii. Individuals who wish to be candidates in the election shall collect the signatures of ten members who wish to see the individual stand for election to the councillor office.
 - 9.3.1.a.iii. Individuals who collect the necessary signatures and have their eligibility validated shall be declared a candidate; and
 - 9.3.1.a.iv. Candidates shall submit to the Electoral Officer, before the end of the nomination phase, a photo of themselves and summary of their campaign platform to be posted on the CMAS website.
 - 9.3.1.b. Campaigning, where:
 - 9.3.1.b.i. The campaigning stage takes place over the course of at least ten days, with the final day of the campaign period coinciding with the Annual General Meeting;
 - 9.3.1.b.ii. Candidates may reach out to Society members outside of the physical location of the CMAS Office or the virtual locations of any of the social media platforms administered by the Society; and
 - 9.3.1.b.iii. Candidates shall not offer anything to members that may be construed as a bribe for votes, or make campaign promises that contradict the Constitution of the Society. In case of infringement, the Electoral Officer shall have the authority to revoke the candidature of the offender.
 - 9.3.1.c. Voting, where:
 - 9.3.1.c.i. The voting stage takes place over the course of exactly 48 hours;
 - 9.3.1.c.ii. Voting shall be conducted by secret ballot;

- 9.3.1.c.iii. Voting may be conducted by proxy;
 - 9.3.1.c.iv. Ballots shall consist of the names of all eligible candidates, and the option to vote “No confidence”; and
 - 9.3.1.c.v. Votes shall be tallied by the Electoral Officer under the supervision of two witnesses, where the witnesses are any members of the Society who do not have a conflict of interest with any of the candidates or the Electoral Officer.
- 9.3.2. All three stages shall be contained between the dates of 1 March and 31 March inclusive.
- 9.3.3. Individuals who intend to run for a position on the Presidential Board may also choose to run for one position on either the Board of Directors or the Delegation of Representatives, provided that ten signatures are obtained for each office, without overlap between the two, meaning twenty unique member signatures must be acquired for the individual to be a candidate to both offices.
- 9.3.4. The candidate who receives a plurality of votes for an office shall be offered the position, unless the candidate wins election to a seat on both the Presidential Board and either the Board of Directors or the Delegation of Representatives, in which case they shall only be offered the office on the Presidential Board.
- 9.3.5. The results of the election shall be ratified and published by the Electoral Officer to the Society.
- 9.4. Runoff Elections shall be held at a Public Meeting within the 14 days following the Annual General Meeting if any of the criteria listed in Article 9.4.2 are met.
- 9.4.1. An office for which a runoff election is being conducted shall be referred to hereafter as a “Runoff Position”.
 - 9.4.2. A Runoff election shall be triggered for a councillor office if:
 - 9.4.2.a. The plurality of votes for an office is “No confidence”;
 - 9.4.2.b. The winning candidate of an office declines to accept the position for any reason;
 - 9.4.2.c. The winning candidate of an office on the Board of Directors or the Delegation of Representatives also wins election to an office on the Presidential Board; or

- 9.4.2.d. No eligible candidate runs for an office.
- 9.4.3. Names of individuals who meet the criteria, and wish to run, for a runoff position shall be collected by the Electoral Officer at the beginning of the Public Meeting.
 - 9.4.3.a. An individual may only be a candidate to one runoff position.
 - 9.4.3.b. The Electoral Officer shall validate the eligibility of the candidates.
 - 9.4.3.c. Should there be no eligible candidate for a vacancy of the President or Vice President Internal, the requirement to have served at least one full term as a Councillor shall be waived.
- 9.4.4. Voting polls shall be conducted during the meeting at a reasonable timeframe dictated by the Electoral Officer, and shall be open to any member with voting rights who attends the meeting.
 - 9.4.4.a. Voting shall conclude before the end of the meeting.
 - 9.4.4.b. Voting by proxy in a runoff election is not permitted.
 - 9.4.4.c. Ballots shall consist of the names of all eligible candidates, and the option to vote “No confidence”.
- 9.4.5. Votes shall be tallied by the Electoral Officer under the supervision of two witnesses, where the witnesses are any members of the Society who do not have a conflict of interest with any of the candidates or the Electoral Officer.
